

Eve Ash is a psychologist, author and speaker who has produced hundreds of short films, documentaries and TV episodes, winning over 150 awards including an Australian Businesswoman of the Year. She founded Seven Dimensions, producing series including the Cutting Edge Communication, Insights & Strategies and Expert Evidence Series. Her latest feature documentary Man on the Bus (2019) about her family secret, will be screened around Australia at the Jewish Film Festival.

Eve is a justice hunter for the Sue Neill-Fraser case in Tasmania. She produced the award winning feature documentary, Shadow of Doubt in 2013 and co-produced and stars in the 6-part TV series Undercurrent: True Crime Murder Investigation (2019) aired on Channel 7 and 7plus.

'AN UPDATE ON UNDERCURRENT: AFTER 10 YEARS IN JAIL THERE IS A TURNING
TIDE IN THE SUE NEILL-FRASER CASE'